Broker Compensation, NEW Attorneys and Technology Updates

Broker Compensation

In a continued effort to adapt to current market conditions, MassHousing is implementing a flexible NEW Broker compensation plan. Broker compensation for all Loans, whether BPC (borrower) or LPC (lender), shall consist of one option selected from the compensation structure located within the Broker Compensation Agreement linked below.

Your current broker's compensation plan will remain in effect until November 1. 2025. Brokers must select a new compensation option by October 1, 2025, to avoid a disruption in new applications after that date. Your selection will be in effect for a minimum of one hundred eighty (180) days from the agreed-upon date (the "Compensation Plan Date") and shall apply to all Loan Applications during said period. Thereafter, brokers must provide thirty (30) day written notice on the selection of a new compensation option.

- Broker compensation for closed and funded loans shall be based on the first mortgage amount as indicated on the promissory notes.
- The maximum broker compensation shall not exceed $15,000.

**Please reach out to the Lock desk with your questions regarding your broker compensation**
