City of Chelsea, Chelsea Restoration Corporation to Host Home Fair October 14

MassHousing and numerous partners will assist homebuyers and homeowners with professional services and advice from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Homewood Suites Hotel

BOSTON – October 10, 2017 – MassHousing is partnering with the City of Chelsea, Chelsea Restoration Corporation and other business partners in a home fair for homebuyers and homeowners on Saturday, Oct. 14, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Homewood Suites Hotel in Chelsea.

The home fair will allow attendees to access an array of professionals in the homeownership industry. Topics will include down payment and closing cost assistance, affordable housing lotteries and resales, foreclosure prevention, home refinancing, home improvement loans, lead paint removal loans, budgeting and credit scores, and energy efficiency programs.

Also participating in the home fair will be the Massachusetts Housing Partnership, Suffolk County Registry of Deeds, Massachusetts Rehabilitation Commission, Community Action Programs Inter-City, Inc., East Cambridge Savings Bank, Peoples United Bank, Rockland Trust, Madelyn Garcia Real Estate, United Brokers, and Coldwell Banker Residential.

The Homewood Suites Hotel is located at 145 Beech St. in Chelsea. The home fair is open and free to the public and there will be free parking.

About MassHousing

MassHousing (The Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency) is an independent, quasi-public agency created in 1966 and charged with providing financing for affordable housing in Massachusetts. The Agency raises capital by selling bonds and lends the proceeds to low- and moderate-income homebuyers and homeowners, and to developers who build or preserve affordable and/or mixed-income rental housing. MassHousing does not use taxpayer dollars to sustain its operations, although it administers some publicly funded programs on behalf of the Commonwealth. Since its inception, MassHousing has provided more than $20 billion for affordable housing.
