Worcester Housing Community Will Undergo Extensive Renovation, Have Affordability Extended for 30 Years With $22.5 Million in MassHousing Financing

The 156-unit Stratton Hill Park was purchased by Beacon Communities through Chapter 40T to ensure continued affordability for lower-income and working households

BOSTON – October 11, 2017 – MassHousing has closed on $22.5 million in financing to Beacon Communities LLC for the purchase, rehabilitation and preservation of affordability at the 156-unit Stratton Hill Park housing community in Worcester.

Beacon Communities acquired and preserved Stratton Hill Park under Chapter 40T, a state law designed to help prevent affordable housing from being sold and converted to market-rate rents. The Massachusetts Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) administers Chapter 40T.

“This transaction is a great outcome for the residents of Stratton Hill Park and the city of Worcester,” said MassHousing Executive Director Tim Sullivan. “MassHousing, Beacon Communities and DHCD were committed to preserving and extending the affordability for the residents, while also allowing for major property renovations. Stratton Hill Park will continue to provide quality housing for residents with a range of incomes with a new workforce housing tier for working households.”

Beacon Communities plans an estimated $9.7 million in property renovation including, the creation of eight accessible apartments and common area accessibility improvements, new roofs on townhouse buildings, drainage improvements to the roofs on mid-rise buildings, building façade and balcony repairs and new, energy-efficient windows.

MassHousing provided a $9.8 million construction and permanent loan, a $10.2 million equity bridge loan, and $2.5 million from MassHousing’s $100 million Workforce Housing Initiative.

The transaction also received approximately $3.5 million in financing from DHCD, $1.2 million from the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, which MassHousing administers on behalf of DHCD, and approximately $15.1 from an allocation of state and federal Low-Income Housing Tax Credits.

“It is exciting to preserve Stratton Hill as a vibrant affordable community for families from all walks of life. MassHousing and DHCD were instrumental in helping Beacon Communities finance, preserve and rehabilitate the property. Current residents are ecstatic,” said Beacon Communities Acquisition Director Michael Alperin.

Stratton Hill Park is located at 161 Mountain St. in Worcester and is comprised of 18 studio units, 82 one-bedroom apartments, 45 two-bedroom apartments and 11 three-bedroom apartments located in two mid-rise buildings and two townhouse buildings.

Of the 156 apartments, 16 will be for households earning at or below 30% of the Area Median Income ($25,700 for a family of four), 62 units will be for households earning at or below 60% AMI ($51,420 for a family of four), 50 units will be for working households with incomes between 61% and 80% AMI ($52,247 to $68,000 for a family of four) and 28 units will be rented at market rates.

MassHousing has financed 17 rental housing communities in Worcester with 3,297 total units and an original total loan amount of $204.3 million and provided mortgage financing to 2,979 homeowners with an original principal loan amount of $320.1 million.

About MassHousing

MassHousing (The Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency) is an independent, quasi-public agency created in 1966 and charged with providing financing for affordable housing in Massachusetts. The Agency raises capital by selling bonds and lends the proceeds to low- and moderate-income homebuyers and homeowners, and to developers who build or preserve affordable and/or mixed-income rental housing. MassHousing does not use taxpayer dollars to sustain its operations, although it administers some publicly funded programs on behalf of the Commonwealth. Since its inception, MassHousing has provided more than $20 billion for affordable housing.
